ORDER

Upon consideration of the motion to dismiss or, in the alternative, for summary judgment filed February 20, 2007 by defendant American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO (Doc. # 41), it is ORDERED that the court will consider the evidentiary materials submitted with the motion and may treat the motion as one for summary judgment. Plaintiff may respond to the motion on or before March 23, 2007. The defendant may file a reply brief on or before April 3, 2007.<sup>1</sup> Any documents or evidence filed after the applicable deadline will not be considered by the court except in exceptional circumstances.

It is further ORDERED that the parties are DIRECTED to provide the court with courtesy photocopies of their summary judgment briefs and evidentiary submissions on or <sup>1</sup> The motion will be submitted for decision without oral argument. Should the court determine that oral argument is necessary, a hearing date will be scheduled later.

before April 5, 2007.

In responding to a motion for summary judgment, the parties should make specific reference to the following provisions of Rule 56(e), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:

When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of his pleading, but his response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided for in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.

A party opposing a motion for summary judgment cannot rely only on his unsworn pleadings but must oppose the motion by filing sworn affidavits<sup>2</sup>, depositions, or answers to interrogatories that set forth specific facts which demonstrate that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial in this case. Failure to file sworn affidavits or other acceptable evidence as set forth in Rule 56(e) may result in this court accepting the moving party's evidence as the truth.<sup>3</sup> If documents are referred to in the opposing affidavits and have not been previously filed with the court, sworn or certified copies of those papers must be attached to the affidavits or served with them.

Failure to follow the requirements of Rule 56 regarding the proper way to oppose a <sup>2</sup> An affidavit is a sworn statement in writing made under oath or on affirmation before a notary public or other authorized officer. The affidavit must be made on personal knowledge, set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated in the affidavit. A declaration under penalty of perjury that meets the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1746 is also an acceptable form of evidence.

<sup>3</sup> If the party opposing the motion is unable to present, by affidavit or declaration, facts essential to justify his opposition, then he must file a sworn statement as to why he is unable to do so.

motion for summary judgment may result in a recommendation of the Magistrate Judge that the motion be granted and that final judgment be entered in favor of the moving party without an evidentiary hearing.

Done, this 27th day of February, 2007.
